About Wimco and Villa Vacations

Hard to believe we've been at this for 28 years! The origins of Wimco (the West Indies Management Company) as a villa rental specialist date back to 1983 when Tim Warburton began to operate a US based reservations office dedicated to villa rentals on St Barts. Over the years Wimco invested heavily to promote awareness of St Barts as a special vacation destination, and of villa rentals as an attractive vacation option.

The island of St Barts is now well known world-wide as a chic but understated island, blessed with beautiful quiet beaches and charming French villages, and free of the clutter of cruise ships and massive resorts. Today Wimco continues to be the premiere villa rental company serving St Barts, representing over 250 hand-picked private vacation villas, while also taking reservations for the island's top hotels. Wimco's reservations agents know every nook and cranny of the island and visit it several times each year to keep abreast of what is new and different. Visit Wimco's office across the street from the St Barts airport to meet our client services team.
